DAMODAR VALLEY CORPORATION

Dated, the 15th December 1964

No. 57—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 60 of the Damodar Valley Corporation Act, 1948 (14 of 1948), the Corporation hereby makes, with the previous sanction of the Central Government, the following further amendments to the Damodar Valley Corporation Service Regulations, published with the Damodar Valley Corporation Notification No. 5, dated the 28th January 1957, namely :—

In the said Regulations—

(1) In Regulation 20, for the figures '55' occurring after the words "whose age exceeds", the figures '58' shall be substituted;

(2) For Regulation 21, the following Regulation shall be substituted, namely :—

"Regulation 21—(a) The date of compulsory retirement of an employee, other than an employee in the Class III Service, shall be the date on which he attains the age of 58. The service of an employee, who has completed the age of 58, may, however, be extended by the Corporation, beyond the age of 58 subject to his fitness and suitability for work, on public grounds which should be recorded in writing, by not more than one year at a time.

(b) An employee in the Class III Service of the Corporation shall be retained in service up to the age of 60 years.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses (a) and (b), the appointing authority may require an employee to retire at any time after he attains the age of 55, on three months' notice without assigning any reason. An employee also may, after attaining the age of 55, voluntarily retire after giving three months' notice to the appointing authority."

2. This Notification shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the 21st January 1963.

By order
